

FOR EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

Patricia Panarello

Lead Teacher

The Malvern School of Erial

Since 2006

What is the proudest moment of your time at The Malvern School?

I participated in leading our school's ALSF events during our NAEYC window. We raised more money last year than in previous years!

What do you like most about our program or what do you think sets us apart?

What sets us apart from other schools is our commitment to be the best! We are always being trained on the most current early education trends.

What do you enjoy in your free time?

I enjoy spending time with my four children and three dogs. We go camping and to the beach throughout the year.

Any unique or fun facts about yourself?

I love the Fast and Furious series. I would love to travel to Italy to see the pope.

What is your favorite children's book?

The Little Engine That Could by Watty Piper
